JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

From the Dayton Journal.
A SCARED SINNER.

THE DEVIL IN THE SHAPE OF A BIG BULL—STRANGE SCENE IN THE CHAMBER OF A DYING WOMAN.

A most remarkable premonition has just come to our knowledge. It is one of those startling incidents which stagger the credulity, reaching beyond the realm of fancy, and trenching upon the supernatural. We can only hope to give the readers of the Journal a tolerable idea of the affair, leaving details to the imagination.

John W—— resides on the Hill, in the eastern part of the city. He had for years claimed himself a materialist; and he took pride in saying that he believe in nothing that could not be recognized with the aid of the senses. He did not believe in "supernatural manifestations," and he utterly scouted the idea of an existence beyond the grave. His Sundays were mainly spent in hunting through the fields and forests contiguous to the city, with his dogs and gun. He was a very Nimrod, and he had a taste for preserving, in excellent style, the game he secured. We note these matters to show the reader that W. is not a man who is easily affected by those demonstrations which are termed "spiritual manifestations."

Some time ago his wife was taken seriously ill; and in order that she have the most careful nursing and patient attention it were possible to secure, he assisted in the duties of the sick room, and spared neither rest nor sleep, ministering to the wants of his sick wife, both day and night. Despite the best medical attention, and the most loving and devoted nursing, the wife grew worse, until all hope of her recovery was given up by the attending physicians; though the affectionate husband could not believe the unwelcome intelligence.

The evening before the dissolution of Mrs. W, whose husband, who was almost overcome with anxiety, watching and fatigue, laid down on a lounge in the sick-room to obtain a little rest—not sleep. A queer sort of drowsiness came over him. He did not sleep. He was conscious of everything transpiring in the room. He was, for the moment, incapable of motion, he had no volition of will. Suddenly there appeared before him a monstrous, fierce looking bull, eyes blazing fire, his mouth open, smoke issuing from his nose, and he was lashing his sides with his tail! It was a fearful sight—it was too real for an apparition, and W. was appalled! What could he do? Making a desperate effort, he sprang from from the lounge to the floor, and the same instant the terrible brute vanished!

Observing that his sick wife was watching his strange movements, he inquired of her if she had seen the fearful sight. She had been awake all the while, but she had seen or heard nothing of the apparition which had so startled her husband. She told him it was all his own imagination; that he had worn himself down by constant watching, and that he needed rest and sleep; that she did not require so much attention, and that if he did not obtain the rest he so badly needed, he would also be sick. At length W. also came to the conclusion that the thing was the fancy of an overwrought mind. But he could not banish the incident and he was much annoyed about it. He was perfectly wide awake all the while, and how could the thing have merely been in his fancy?

W. again laid down on the lounge, and was in that position only a few minutes when the same horrid brute again made his appearance, looking much more ferocious than before, and threatening to tear him with hoofs and horns! The huge brute approached W., glared in his eyes, while the hot breath of the animal fairly stifled him! With a yell of terror W. sprang from the lounge, and the same instant the horrid brute disappeared! At the same time the stove in the room was enveloped in a sheet of flame, which shot up against the ceiling, and W. feared that the house would be set on fire. But the flames vanished as suddenly as they appeared, and there was not the smell of fire in the room, or the sign of smoke on the ceiling.

W., who never knew fear, and had never prayed, now fairly trembled with terror, and prayed to the Great Being for protection for him and his. From that moment W. became a firm believer in a hereafter, and a system of rewards and punishments. He has not seen the wonderful apparition since.

A pungent, as well as a conclusive, letter is published in the June number of the Galaxy, from Judge Black, of Pa., to Mr. Wilson, one of the Massachusetts Senators, in relation to the "war record" of the late Mr. E. M. Stanton, and his antecedents. Mr. Wilson, by his unfortunate attempt to defend his friend, has exposed himself to the most scathing criticism. Mr. Stanton is dead—and, therefore, people do not desire, particularly, to speak of him. But everybody knows he was, previous to being taken up by Mr. Lincoln, a Democrat, a States Rights man, an anti-abolitionist, &c. The Baltimore Gazette says: "Mr. Stanton was in accord in all things with Mr. Buchanan's Cabinet and with the Democratic party. He advised both to the best of his ability, and as late as September 1861, he was in the city of Baltimore, and heaping curses both loud and deep on the whole Radical party. He had then no more "loyalty" about him than had scores of other politicians whom, we could name, who afterwards found it to their advantage to turn into foaming "patriots."

VIOLATION OF THE FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT.—In the decoration of the graves of the Union soldiers on Tuesday last at Arlington the colored soldiers appear to have been wholly ignored by the Grand Army of the Republic. The negro dead occupied a cemetery some distance apart from that devoted to the Union soldiers, and no preparations had been made to include it in the operations of the programme, and so Cuffy, for once, went unnoticed. Geo. T. Downing, the colored restaurateur of the Capitol, is highly incensed at this slight to his race, and proposes to memorialize Congress to have the bodies of the colored soldiers taken up and buried in the same cemetery with the whites, "that no distinction may be made on account of color." Among the silent spectators was Senator Revels, who occupied his leisure moments in reading letters from his constituents.

Two children of Mrs. Smith, on Van Buren street, Brooklyn, N. Y., died recently from the effects of wounds by rats, which had bitten them.

WALTHAM WATCHES.
THE EXTENSIVE USE OF THESE WATCHES for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers, and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.
More than 450 000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.
The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enable them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch, merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.
We are now selling Waltham Watches at less prices in greenbacks, than the gold prices before the war. There is no other manufacture of any kind in the United States of which this can be said.
These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watchmaking originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.
Among the many improvements we would particularize:
The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's Patent pinion as being the best and faultless.
Hardened and tempered hair springs, now universally admitted by watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.
All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movement from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.
Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch, is already a decided success and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements which tend to insure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.
Every watch guaranteed by the Company.
To prevent imposition, buyers should see that every watch should bear either of the following trade marks.

American Watch Co.,	Waltham, Mass.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION.

We published yesterday, Governor Holden's proclamation for the arrest of the McLeod murderers, and various other breakers of the law, from January 1869 to date. This proclamation requires and shall have, a more extended notice than we have time to give it to day.

If "Dad" were Governor of Virginia, he would be called "proclamation Bill," from his great proclivity to issuing those documents. He issues a proclamation on every subject and on all occasions, except when some good man, like the McLeods, are murdered.

When the murder of these men was committed in Cumberland, he issued no proclamation, nor offered any reward for the assassins, until the SENTINEL spurred him up to it by calling public attention to the neglect. Then he inserted what he called a proclamation, in the editorial columns of the Standard, which was nothing, in fact, but an election document, such as he had frequently before written for the columns of that paper.

There was so much in it about Outlaws and Stephens and others, about which official proclamations had been issued before, that one could hardly see anything about the murdered McLeods in it all.

A few lines reciting the murder of the McLeods and offering a reward for the arrest of the murderers, would have been sufficient, and cost the State much less money, but that didn't suit the Governor's tactics; consequently he embodies a sort of synopsis of all his former proclamations, besides a few original "wheresas," that show him to have been extremely negligent of his duty, heretofore if there was any necessity or propriety of bringing them in at all.

Among the lot, he has a "Whereas" that T. M. Shoffner was obliged to "sacrifice his property and leave the State because of his devotion to the United States government and opposition to the Ku Klux."

Now, is it not astonishing that any man with ordinary pretentions to common sense, should ingraft such flimsy fabrication as this in what ought to be a grave and dignified State paper? Was Shoffner peculiar in his devotion to the United States government, and opposition to Ku Klux, that it became necessary for him especially to sacrifice his property and run away to save his life?

That part of the proclamation relating to Shoffner, like several others, is a palpable falsehood.

The plain truth is, that Shoffner was in debt and ran away; no doubt saving his seven dollars a day to aid him in his flight. He traveled through his own county, passing four different stations on the Railroad before he took the cars. Three several advertisements, attaching his property, sticking up at the Court House door in Graham, show that he ran away.

This Shoffner was a rebel soldier and served the Confederacy in catching deserters in Moore county. He is the man who robbed a grave, taking from it the body of a negro, which he boiled in a sorghum trough until the flesh left the bones; the flesh he then threw to his dogs, and the skeleton he sold to a physician for $35 in Confederate money! For this act of inhumanity he was indicted in Guilford Superior Court, where he plead guilty and paid the cost, after the fashion of Stephens for stealing chickens in Rockingham.

We have no disposition to republish such facts as these, now that Shoffner has run away, and got out of the State, but when the Governor sees fit to embalm such characters in his solemn proclamations, we think it well enough, nay, even absolutely necessary, to let the public know who it is he is thus endeavoring to create sympathy for. He has devoted three times as much of his extraordinary proclamation to this first class absconding scoundrel, as he has to the McLeod murder.

The people of the State have to pay for these false and unnecessary statements in the proclamation, as an advertisement, in the Standard, a pastime they will hardly see the fun of in these hard times.

The proclamation is merely a Radical campaign document, replete with falsehood, and is an unnecessary republication of former proclamations. Next to the publication of the Graham affidavit, it may be put down as the most shameless and false document that has appeared in the columns of the Standard since the appearance of the article "Work."

Verily it is true that, "when the wicked rule the people moure."

We are not done with this proclamation yet.

The Steamer "Marion," plying between Wilmington and Fayetteville, met with an accid. nt about 35 miles above Wilmington and sank in 30 feet water. The "Marion" had on board a cargo of 70 barrels of spirits of Turpentine and 301 barrels of rosin.

DISCORD.

Last night, the Rads attempted to hold a township meeting in the Court House, and such a meeting! The State Radical Convention was nothing to it, except in numbers, although Galloway, the brains of that Convention, as well as of the Senate, was put in the guard house, and another New Hanover delegate knocked down on the street.

Mr. M A. Prendergast was chosen, last night, Chairman of the meeting, the purpose of which was to nominate delegates to the County Convention on the 11th.

No sooner was the meeting organized and called to order, than the disorder began.

Mr. C. D. Upchurch objected to the meeting, as the voters outside of the city were not represented, having had no notice of it.

Friday Jones made a few remarks, apparently, but owing to the uproar, not a word he uttered could be heard.

Doyle, policeman, said, "There is a Democratic dick here, for mischief."

Friday Jones. "I call the gentleman to order. We want no personizing in this meeting." (Shouts and laughter.)

The Governor was represented in the meeting by his private Secretary, Mr. Richardson, who made an appeal for order and harmony.

John Jones, the Barber, called for a speech from Sheriff Lee, whereupon, Tim arose and said, among other things, that he was no reconstructed Republican, but was one from birth. (We shouldn't be surprised if he was making a sly pass at Phillips and Badger.) He spoke loyally and to the point, but didn't explain how it was he pocketed the ten thousand dollars of Railroad bonds, he found with his name on them in Littlefield's room.

Simon Craven said there was a man there to break up the meeting. Cries of, "put him out! put him out!" and "who is he?" Simon gave the name of John Manuel as the guilty party.

John indignantly denied the charge.

Logan Harris, Cebe's son, took the floor and told an anecdote in his usual felicitous style, about an old woman travelling the road to Cherry Mountain, who, coming to a certain point in the road, classically exclaimed that "she'd be d—d if she weren't lost!" He began to feel that he was in the same predicament, and that if the Republican party traveled on in the road of discord it was now going, it would be lost in August next.

Ned Bryan, the colored shoe maker, said he had been quiet heretofore, as a Republican, but now, for once, he desired to "suppress" himself.

Cebe's son proposed nine names as delegates, among them John Jones and Moses Patterson.

An uproar ensued; many calling out to have John Jones's name erased.

John said he wanted his name taken off, for he had lost $10,000 by serving on Committees already; that he made his living by his razor, and not by serving on committees.

Moses Patterson asked to have his name taken off, too.

James H. Harriss then made his appearance on the arena, said he was a Republican and a tax-payer. (Some of the sovereigns looked as if they thought this a personal reflection on their own tax receipts.) Bryan Lunn threw in the remark that he too, would be a tax payer, if he had property. He moved that the meeting adjourn until Friday night.

"Hon." James moved that no man vote on the motion except those residing out of the city. The motion took; none but "the gentlemen from the country," voted, and the motion to adjourn to Friday was adopted. The meeting accordingly adjourned, amid much hallooing and shouting, and the Chairman carried off the packed committee in his pocket, as one of the outsiders wittily remarked. Col. Guthrie, of Orange, and Henry Hogan, late of the same county, were in the meeting. Hogan wanted to speak, but was hissed down.—James said, it must be apparent to Mr. Hogan that the convention did not want to hear him, on the present occasion, and he hoped he would be able to see it, and not obtrude himself. Hogan "shet up;" left in indignation, saying, he "didn't think there was so much ignorance in his party."

There was some sharp sparring between the brethren after the adjournment; some declaring that the Chairman went there, under certain influences, with the committeeman his pocket, and that it was a "packed concern." The last our special reporter heard, as he left, was, a member from the suburbs declaring that "it was mighty curus and cheap" to him, for the Chairman to come there and take his seat, with the delegates in his pocket."

DISTURBED.

From the way "Dad's" bull calf, Joe, bleats this morning, we think it likely we have touched him "on the raw" again.

We are not disturbed by these bovine bellowings; they are only evidences that our licks tell. Let the bull calf bleat, we shall not turn from our path to see what hurts him. We shall continue, however, to show up "Dad" and his organ, the leagues and the Ku Klux all the same.—There are more important claims on our columns than that of answering the attacks of the Governor's profligate and drunken son Joe, and his anonymus correspondents.

GONE DEMOCRATIC.

The telegrams of yesterday noon announce that Oregon has given a large Democratic majority, electing the entire ticket and having a majority of 3 to 8 on joint ballot in the Legislature.

Day before yesterday was announced the success of the anti-radical ticket in the municipal election in Washington city; and in Hartford Connecticut, the People's ticket was elected over the regular Republican nominees.

The Radical press and leaders may hoot, and say these things are nothing, but we are more satisfied with them than we would be if they went the other way, and we have no doubt the Rads are less so.

BILLY SMITH ON NEGRO TESTIMONY.

When Job was in a tight place in the controversy with his false comforters, he cried out "O that mine adversary had writ ten a book!" because he knew that these rotating, uncertain, shifty kind of fellows, who are one thing to-day and another to-morrow, just as their private interests seem to point, would be sure to wind themselves up, if they ventured to put themselves in black and white.

Job's adversaries, it seems, had been too smart to give the patient old man such a hold on them, but our Billy Smith, the Johnston County candidate for the Senate in Alamance, has not been so cautious. Billy is now a rantankerous Radical, and wants all the negro votes he can get to send him to the Senate, but he has not always been so good a friend to the rights of the colored man, as will be seen from the letter below, which Billy wrote to his friend Pennington, when the said Pennington was trying to beat Hon. B. F. Moore, for the Convention, because Mr. Moore was in favor of giving the colored people their rights before the law!

We have several of these old documents on hand, which we expect to use during the present campaign. But to the letter.—Let the colored people read it and see what a good friend Maj. Wm. A. Smith was to them, before he wanted their votes to send him to the Senate:

BOON HILL, JOHNSTON COUNTY, }
Sept. 7th, 1865. }

J. L. Pennington, Esq.

Yours of the 3rd inst., is at hand. You say I am reported as having said publicly on the streets in Raleigh, that B. F. Moore, Esq., of your city, had said in my presence that he was in favor of negro evidence in the Courts. Mr. Moore did say in my presence that he was in favor of negro evidence.—Not only in my presence, but in the presence of John Pool, of Bertie; Mr. Brooks, of one of the lower counties; and ——. Thompson, of Bertie.

I was not present when Mr. Moore was in conversation with the above gentlemen, but they told me of it next morning at the Yarborough House.

Mr. Moore went further than merely stating he was for negro evidence. He argued with me an hour about it, and finally, I not yielding to his arguments, asked me to postpone making up my mind upon the subject, as he looked upon it as a matter of great importance and no one should make up their minds too soon until the subject was thoroughly investigated in all its bearings.

I have always been and am now a devoted friend of Mr. Moore's, and up to this time a political friend; but I could not and would not vote for any man who at this time is in favor of negro evidence.

You can use this as you please.

Very respectfully,

W. A. SMITH.

CAMPAIGN DOCUMENTS.

We are constantly receiving applications from various parts of the State for campaign documents; all of which applications and inquiries should be directed to J. J. Litchford, Esq., Secretary and Treasurer of the Conservative Central Executive Committee.

We will state here that, as yet, no documents have been prepared for distribution, for want of funds, and we suggest to persons interested in the, getting up of information for distribution among the people, to exert themselves to raise money to pay for printing documents.

The Central Executive Committee cannot print documents, find the paper and pay the postage without money, we therefore, in behalf of the committee, call on our friends in all parts of the State to give attention to this matter. Our opponents will spend vast sums in this way, and in order to counteract the influence of their false statements, we must send forth facts to the people; and to do this it is necessary to have money.

Communications on this subject should be directed as above.

MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Pursuant to the call of the chairman, the Executive Committee for the State, of the Conservative party, met in this city on the 8th inst.

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Hon. Thos. Bragg, who stated that the object of the call was to nominate a candidate for the office of Attorney General.

After an interchange of views among the members of the Committee, James S. Amis, Esq., put in nomination the Hon. Wm. M. Ship, of Mecklenburg county, which nomination was concurred in by acclamation.

The following resolution, proposed by Hon. Thos. C. Fuller, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Committee do most heartily endorse the address of the Conservative members of the General Assembly at their last session, and recognize the same as the exposition of the principles of the party in the State. And we invite every honest voter in the State, both white and colored, to unite with us in carrying out the principles set forth in said address, and in establishing a wise, economical and just administration of the State government.

On motion of the Hon. A. S. Merrimon, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That each member of the Executive Committee will address the people of the State, upon the condition of the State and country as often as he can between this time and the day of the approaching election, and that each urge our friends everywhere to do likewise.

Resolved, That it is the duty of every citizen to make personal exertion to secure the success of the Conservative Democratic ticket, in all parts of the State.

On motion the Chairman was appointed to inform Judge Shipp of his nomination and request his acceptance.

The Committee then adjourned.

THOS. BRAGG, Ch'm.

J. J. LICHFORD, Sec'y.

A SUGGESTION.—Editors Recorder: As there are so many aspirants for office in Orange and some dissatisfaction with the action of the Convention of delegates, it is respectfully suggested to the Executive Committee that a primary election be held on the 2nd Saturday in July at every precinct in the county at which the Conservatives shall indicate their preference for each office, and the person having the highest number of votes shall be the nominee. Can there be any objection to this plan and will not all parties agree to abide the result of the decision? ORANGE.
—Hillsboro Recorder.

For the Sentinel.

CARTHAGE, June 6, 1870.

Editor of the Sentinel:

I alluded briefly last week to the Standard's Ku Klux communication from Moore county. I had not then seen the evidence of Daniel Graham as published by the Standard, but the whole affair is now before me. I hope I may be pardoned for taking the matter up again, not so much to defend the character of A. H. McNeill, K. H. Worthy, F. J. Swann and the other good citizens who are so cruelly assailed by the Standard, for these gentlemen are known to the people of Moore, of high standing and of irreproachable character. I simply wish to give a few facts to show how desperate the Radicals have become, after seeing they have plundered and robbed the people as long as they can. They see and know they must try some new plan to deceive and mislead the people. As a dernier resort, they are calling on the horse thieves and outlaws of the country for help; they seem to think, if the people are blinded by party spirit, that they will not believe leading Radicals and the League organ, surely they will not be stupid and skeptical as to disbelieve the sworn statement of Daniel A. Graham, though a horse thief.

In Graham's affidavit, before that unknown but certainly very vigilant peace officer, he states that he, himself was a Ku Klux and was present when Ed. Blue's house was fired and his wife and children murdered. Why did not that peace officer, who took this affidavit have Graham arrested, who confessed that he was present aiding and abetting in a most foul murder? If the said peace officer believed Graham told the truth, why did he not at once issue his warrant and have J. B. Cole, Ham Riddle and others mentioned by Graham, arrested? If he believed it was false, why publish it abroad? But let us look at Graham's evidence in regard to the murder of Ed. Blue's family, taken on another occasion. About the last of February 1869, Anthony Graham, brother of Daniel, was arrested under the charge of being implicated in the murder of Blue's family and of burning his house. On the 27th of February 1869, Anthony made application before Judge Buxton, who was then holding court in Moore, to be admitted to bail under the writ of habeas corpus. The following is part of Daniel A. Graham's testimony, as taken by Judge Buxton, and now on file in the office of the Superior Court of Moore county. "I was at Starling's on the night of the burning, Anthony Graham, my brother, went with me, we got there half an hour in the night—went to get work done on Anthony's shoe. We heard three shots fired in quick succession, Starling went to the door and said he believed Ed. Blue's house was on fire. I went to the door to see, on getting there I heard three more shots in quick succession, the fire seemed to be running high.—I am nineteen years old, my father is considered a friend to the colored people and belongs to the Radical party." Another brother of Anthony and also of Daniel, proved the Grahams to be Radicals and known as such. Ed. Blue swore positively that Anthony and Ben Graham fired his house and murdered his family, but the negro's character was shown to be very bad, that he had made inconsistent statements; thus with the evidence of Daniel, who proved an alibi, of course acquitted the defendant.

The object of the Standard is too apparent, it is evidently for political purposes. A few hungry, starving Radicals could be named here, who want offices, though the people will not elect them, and they know if the militia are called they will get appointments, whereby they may get a little of the needful, and being clothed in a little brief authority, can give vent to their spleen and malice on the good and quiet people of the county, they know their only hope to control affairs is the bayonet, hence, such men as Daniel Graham will be called on to swear to anything the clique may require. Daniel Graham is an ignorant youth, his father and family are familiarly known as the "Swamp Tigers," from the wild and savage character they have ever exhibited. No one believes that Daniel knew the meaning of half the questions and answers in his affidavit, but it seems that it was fixed up for him.

So far as it is charged that the civil law cannot be executed, I can speak from observation, especially as to Moore county, and say the charge is not true here. At our last Court every man who figured on the State docket, was convicted except one case of bastardy. Whether this is complimentary to the lawyers who defended, the Solicitor who prosecuted, the Judge or Jury, I do not pretend to say. There has not been and is not now any resistance of the civil authorities, no one thinks of such a thing. It is true, outrages have been committed in a few instances by unknown persons, if they were known they would be arrested and brought to speedy justice.

CITIZEN.

COMMENCEMENT AT WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.

DEAR SENTINEL:—The annual literary festival of this institution was inaugurated yesterday by a meeting of the Board of Trustees. The reports of the President and Treasurer indicated a larger measure of prosperity than the College has enjoyed at any time since the war, and more students than ever matriculated in any year since it was converted from a manual labor school into a college. The catalogue shows 116 students during the year, and we are pleased to know that the financial condition of the College is easier than at the last commencement. The Trustees conferred the degree of A. M. in course, on Rev. Wm. Bennett, pastor elect of the Fayetteville Church, and the honorary degree of A. M. on Julius Picot, Esq., of Murfreesboro, N. C. Rev. W. T. Brooks of the College Hill, and Prof. C. H. Toy of the Baptist Theological Seminary of Greenville, S. C., were honored with the title of Doctors of Divinity. Mr. Brooks was once a Professor in this College; is President of the North Carolina Baptist Convention and has long been the esteemed pastor of two or three Churches in this county. Prof. Toy is an A. M. of the University of Virginia, and has spent several years at a German University, and is confessedly one of the most honored men in the country. He will deliver the valedictory sermon to-night in the room of Dr. John A. Broadus, who is about to start to Europe in pursuit of health.

Last night Rev. John Mitchell, A. M., of Bertie, delivered the annual address before the Alumni Association. His subject was "The Love of Truth," and he gave his audience, in a brief and modest address, much good counsel in regard to the pursuit and practice of truth.

To-day the address before the Societies was delivered by Hon. John Kerr of Yanceyville. The distinguished orator chose as his theme, "The Education of Youth based upon the truth revealed in the Bible is the hope of the Nation," and for nearly an hour held the audience in rapt admiration. It was the very best address your reporter has heard in many years. It was replete with great thoughts set forth in chaste and elegant language. It was eloquent throughout, and many passages sparkled and flashed with the peculiar genius which has so long distinguished this loved and honored son of North Carolina.

Among the eminent gentlemen present, we notice Rev. James B. Taylor, D. D., of Richmond, Va., Rev. R. H. Graves, of Canton, China, Rev. Basil Manly, D. D., of South Carolina, Rev. H. Hatcher, of Virginia, William Eaton, Esq., of Warrenton, N. C., and many others connected with the Baptists of this State. To-morrow is the great day of the feast, and of its proceedings you shall be duly informed by TIMOTHY.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 8, 1870.

MR. EDITOR: The annual pic nic of the Raleigh Baptist Sabbath School came off yesterday, after repeated disappointments on account of the weather. At half past 8 o'clock, A. M., the members of the school and congregation assembled at the church, and soon P. F. Pescud, Chief Marshal of the day, formed a procession, being well aided by his assistants, Messrs. R Upchurch, Dr. Royster, M. J. Broughton, Thos. Blake, S. Wynne, A. D. Jenkins, Chas. Lee and Wm. High, Jr. The procession, headed by the Raleigh Brass Band took up the line of march for the "Mordecai Grove" in the Northeastern part of the city, where arrangements had been made for the "picnic." After the arrival of the procession at the grove, the children assembled around the Speaker's stand, and after brief talks from Marshal Pescud and Superintendent Palmer and a song by the children, they were dismissed until 11 o'clock. They were soon scattered over the extensive grove, and it was really refreshing to see the merry groups of merry folks here and there engaged in such games and pastimes as their fancy suggested.

We soon found ourself where the arrangements were being made for dinner. In a beautiful, well shaded place, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dodd, aided by Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. W. C. Upchurch, were preparing the table for the infant class, which numbers nearly one hundred. Just opposite, the Committee of Arrangements, consisting of Messrs. Jno. Armstrong, A. D. Royster, J. C. Marcom, Wm. Simpson, Pink Hardie, J. H. Alford and P. Francis, and Mrs. P. Fleming, Mrs. Hardie, Mrs. Justice, Misses S. Jenkins and S. Towles, were arranging the refreshments for the adult members of the Sabbath School.

At 11 o'clock the strains of the Band called the crowd again to the speaker's stand. After a song by the children Capt. R. W. Justice, the orator of the day, was introduced, who delivered an address eminently appropriate to the occasion. He said that these festive gatherings caused many persons to become interested in the Sabbath School work. Congratulated the young folks on their cheerful and happy appearance, and, in conclusion, related a beautiful incident of a little boy who asked admittance into Paradise on account of his beauty and virtue, and was finally admitted when he presented himself clad in the robe of Christ's righteousness.

Glem C. Clawson presented an interesting sketch of John the Baptist, and urged all to cherish, with fond regard, the officers and teachers of the Sunday School, and to profit by their teachings.

David C. Dudley Jr., next made an earnest and impressive speech, said he loved the Sunday School, considered its interest his own and esteemed it an honor to do anything for its advancement. He counseled the children against the sin of swearing. He was followed by Masters Jos. Ball, Charles Lewis, Ruffin Litchford, and James Lumley, in short and stirring speeches. The unanimous verdict of the crowd was that they had never heard more appropriate speeches on a similar occasion.—Between the speeches the exercises were enlivened by songs, by the children and music by the band.

At noon the children marched in procession to the tables laden with good things, and I can assure, that ample justice was done to the bountiful repast. The admirable arrangements made by the Committee prevented the confusion so often incident to such occasions.

After dinner the crowd again scattered over the grove, and enjoyment reigned supreme until a late hour, when all returned safely home.

There was no confusion or disorder and nothing occurred to mar the happiness of the occasion. Such gatherings do great good to the Sunday School work, and in our own beautiful "City of Oaks" there is an abundant field for exercising the energies of the Sunday School workers of all denominations.

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, some decidedly lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all th ir really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiture, the Insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without its exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income to cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1870.

☞ Theo. N. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c. &c.

New Engine House.—We learn that the contract has been closed for the building of a new Engine House by the Steam Fire Engine Company, with Messrs. King and Whitelaw, and that the work will be commenced immediately, and the house is to be finished by the first of August. It is to be erected on the Court House Square, near the composing room of the Sentinel office.

Templeton's Operetta.—This Company is most highly spoken of by our Charlotte exchanges, and we advise those who wish to spend a pleasant hour or so to go to Tucker Hall this evening. From the previous favorable impression made upon us by the high order of talent displayed by the Misses Vane, when last performing in this city, and from the high encomiums lavished upon them by the Press, we are led to anticipate a most pleasant entertainment.

The Hook and Ladder Company.—We had several local paragraphs, as well as other articles, prepared for yesterday's paper, crowded out; among them a notice of the Hook and Ladder Company's parade on Tuesday afternoon.

This is one of the effective fire organizations of the city, composed of men of activity and muscle, who take a pride in their company and its appearance, as well as its preparation for service at a fire.

Preceded by the Raleigh Brass Band, the Company, on Tuesday evening paraded through some of the principal streets of the city, and attracted universal attention by their neat and pretty uniform and regular and orderly march. Large numbers came out to look at them and all who saw admired.

If you want to buy a coat,
A vest, or pair of breeches,
Just put yourself afloat,
And sail up town to Creech's;
In getting what you want,
You'll surely there be lucky,
From cloth or cassimere
Down to plain Kentucky.
Or should you want a dress;
A lady's hat or bonnet,
He can suit you to a T,
You may depend upon it.
Of all the goods that's kept
In first class establishments,
Of dress goods, and of shoes
For ladies or for gents,
Of ribbons, lace and trimmings,
Needles, thread and pins,
Of muslins lawns and ginghams,
And a thousand other things,
Suited to every taste,
That every fancy reaches;
So, everybody, haste
And buy your goods at Creech's.
And when you go you'll find,
(Perhaps you'll think it funny,)
He'll sell you lots of goods
For mighty little money.

Thanks.—We return our thanks to our friend, Julian S. Carr, Esq., formerly of Chapel Hill, N. C., now of Little Rock, Ark., for files of late Arkansas papers.

Not So.—That ku klux outrage or murder of a Mr. Butt in Caswell, ("since the death of Stephens,") and over which the Standard lately made a big fuss, is untrue! At least Mr. Butt, who ought to know, and who is a strong Conservative, says he has not been molested in any manner. We have this from a gentleman of high respectability who saw 'the' Mr. Butt a few days ago and "interviewed" him on the subject. "Let us have peace"—if possible.—Hillsboro Recorder.

Clubs.—We return our thanks to friends in various parts of the State for clubs of new subscribers. It is gratifying to us, and we doubt not will be to our friends to know, that our subscription lists are rapidly increasing. We enter new subscribers, some days by the score, on our books, and there is no day but we receive more or less subscriptions.

We thank our friends for the encouragement we receive, and their appreciation of our efforts to show up and expose the mismanagement, blunders, and extravagance of the Radical party in the State, which have brought us to the verge of ruin.

Roll on the ball, friends, keep up the good work; we have still room for many thousand more names.

Fine Gooseberries.—Mr. E. O. Macy exhibited to us, this morning, a sample of the finest gooseberries we ever saw. We measured several of them and found them ranging from two inches and a quarter to two inches and three eighths in circumference. The awakening interest in the cultivation of improved varieties of small fruits, as well as those the larger pomological varieties, in this section, is most gratifying, and thus far, every intelligent effort in that direction has been successful.

Rev. Basil Manly, D. D. of S. C. will preach in the Baptist Church of this city on next Sabbath. Dr. Manly is a nephew of the loved and honored ex Governor Manly of Raleigh, and is one of the Professors in the Baptist Theological Seminary in Greenville, S. C.

Rev. J. B. Hawthorne, the successor of Dr. Pritchard as pastor of the Franklin Square Church of Baltimore, has been called to the pastorate of the 1st Baptist Church of Albany, N. Y. with a salary of $4000 and a parsonage. They seem to appreciate men from the South up that way, as their late pastor Dr. Larimer, was from Kentucky.

It is rumored on our streets that Jim Harris has said he will sell out his Congressional nomination for $8 000 and that the last bid made amounted to $5,500. It is no use gentlemen to endeavor to jew Jim, you must come up to his price, or you can't get him out of the way.

We tell the colored people to watch James and if he withdraws from the contest, they may know he has got his $8,000 and has sold them out.

To do the State Some Service.—Yesterday morning six black-birds were sent out to the Stockade cage at Lover's Rock, where they will sing for the benefit of the State for a few years. Three of them were from Duplin; we did not learn from what county the others hailed, nor what the offences of any of them were. According to the instructions recently issued in regard to receptions at that institution, these birds are each in for four years or upwards; so it may reasonably be conjectured that, whatever they may have done heretofore, they will now do the State some service.

We learned after the above was in type that one of the convicts is the celebrated Pat Artis, who is in for 40 years.

A new steamer called the "North State" has just been completed at Fayetteville, and placed upon the People's line between that place and Wilmington.

THE STEPHENS MURDER.

In the Junior Editor's report last week of the Stephens tragedy, we omitted the following, because we thought it probable our reporter was mistaken in saying a negro had gone into the fatal room for wood the morning of the day of the murder. But it proves no mistake, and we record the evidence:

THE KEY.

Calvin Miles, colored, who waited on Mr. Norfleet, went Saturday morning (the day on which Stephens was killed) after wood in this room. The door of that room was seen open at 1 o'clock, noon, that day. Calvin, on oath, swore he took two turns of wood out of it that morning and gave the key to a young man who clerks for Mr. Norfleet.

Mr. Hill (counsel for State)—"Now, Calvin, be sure you swear the truth. Are you certain you were by yourself when you went for that wood?"

Calvin. "Yes, sir."

Mr. Hill then called to the stand Jerry Poteat, col'd, a man of good character, who upon oath testified that he went with Calvin into the room that morning after wood—that he toted the second turn himself, and that if Calvin locked the door or ever gave a key to any one in the Store he did not see him, and he was with him all the time. So much for the key.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Life Sustaining Organs.

The two organs which minister most directly to the support of the body, are the stomach and liver. In the former the first process of digestion takes place, under the action of that powerful solvent, the gastric juice. Thence the food, converted into a pulp, passes into the duodenum, where it is subjected to the action of the bile or gall, flowing from the liver, and of the fluid generated by the pancreas, or sweetbread of the system. These secretions separate the nutritious portion from the rest, and it is then taken up by the absorbent vessels and conveyed into the channels of circulation in the form of venous blood, while the waste matter is discharged through the bowels. Unless all these processes are duly performed, disease of some sort is inevitable, and the best of all medicinal agents for preserving or restoring the tone and, regulating the action of the three organs—(the stomach, liver and intestines)—by which the three-fold work is carried on, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Indigestion is generally accompanied by constipation, and the gentle cathartic operation of the Bitters is no less important in cases of this kind, than its tonic effect upon the stomach and the biliary gland. Beauty of person as well as health, depends in no small degree upon the regularity of the excretive functions. A sallow complexion, a thick opaque coarse skin, a tainted breath, rush of blood to the head, loss of memory, headache, and extreme mental depression, are the usual accompaniments of costiveness. A course of the Bitters will infallibly relieve, and finally banish these obnoxious symptoms, while invigorating the stomach and promoting healthy action in the liver. This genial vegetable stomachic and alterative, strikes at disease in its primary sources the assimilating, secretive and expulsive organs, and the cures it effects are consequently thorough and complete.

DIED,

In Franklin county, on Thursday, January 2nd, in hope of a joyful resurrection, Mr. Howell Perry, aged 41 years.

His disease was consumption, from which he suffered greatly for several months before his death, but with that resignation which is inspired by a consciousness of being ready for the change. He expressed his willingness to go, in the belief that he should enter into rest; only expressing regret at leaving his wife and little daughter without his protection, but commending them to the protection of his God and theirs.

Mr. Perry, was well known in Raleigh, having resided here most of his life up to four years ago, when he removed to Newbern. He had the respect and esteem of all who knew him.

Wednesday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, June 8.—Revenue $883,000

There are nineteen amendments to the pending Currency bill.

The Secretary of State has no official information regarding the reported Jewish massacre.

An illicit distillery has been seized in Alaska.

House.—Fitch of Nevada, made a personal explanation denying that he was in Cuban pay.

A long debate followed on the Currency bill. A movement to table was lost it by 66 to 63. A motion was made to adjourn.

The Speaker modified the statement previously made, as to the effect of an adjournment on the bill, and said that should the House now adjourn the pending question being, "shall the bill be engrossed and read a third time," the bill would go to the bottom of all the bills on the speaker's table.

Several members.—"And that would be the last of it."

Eldridge.—"That is the reason they moved to adjourn."

Garfield called for the yeas and nays on the motion to adjourn.

The question was taken and the House agreed to adjourn, yeas 79, nays 75, thus virtually killing the bill.

Senate.—Ferry presented a petition from Mr. Hatch imprisoned in San Domingo. Hatch accuses Gen. Babcock of having prolonged his imprisonment in the interest of the San Domingo treaty.

Ferry said that Babcock was an unworthy officer.

Sumner said that Babcock ought to be cashiered.

Chandler said that Hatch was a worthless and troublesome scoundrel

Ferry said that Hatch was a man of honor and integrity, whose word he would take as soon as Chandler's.

After some sharp words, denunciatory of the Foreign Relations Committee for sluggishness regarding the rights of American citizens abroad the matter was referred to a special Committee.

The Judiciary Committee reported a bill to prevent the enforcement of contracts for servile labor.

The Committee on the Hatch affair, consists of Nye, Ferry, Howard, Williams, Warner, Schurz, and Vickers.

NEW YORK.

New York, June 8.—C. F. Zeitz, an extensive tobacco dealer, has failed and disappeared. He passed forged checks and swindled other tobacco firms to the amount of $200 000.

The report of the loss of the "Docia" is false.

FOREIGN.

London, June 8.—Wolff's Continental Telegraphic Company of Berlin, with sub agencies in the principal cities of Europe, know nothing of any recent disturbance in Roumania. The manager of that Company says all reports touching the slaughter or banishment of Roumanian Jews, is baseless.

The Pall Mall Gazette thinks that the Fenian leaders will be forced into some action to sustain their sinking reputations.

A pleasure yatch capsized off Hasting; twelve lost.

From various agricultural papers are gleaned the following in regard to the growing crops: Wheat looks finely everywhere and a crop larger than the avarage may be expected. Grass is unusually thin and hay prospects are discouraging. Oats, Barley and Beans look poorly. Farmers count on about a half of a crop of potatoes, and the yield of other root crops will be about the same as usual.

Paris, June 8.—The ex-minister of Foreign Affairs is slowly recovering from small pox

Thursday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, June 9.—In the House several members denied charges of having been corrupted by Cuban partisans.

A bill passed punishing unlawful certification of checks by officers of National Banks by a fine of $5,000 and imprisonment of five years, and bank officers are made responsible to the innocent purchaser.

Garfield from the Committee on Banking and Currency, introduced another currency and funding bill. The morning hour was wasted in filibustering, when the bill went over.

Philadelphia tobacconists petition for a uniform tax of sixteen cents. It is thought that the bill forbidding servile labor contracts will pass as a party measure. It will invalidate Koopmanschopp's contracts.

Senate.—Davis gave notice of a bill to enable Indian tribes to sue in Federal Courts.

The terrible storm stopped business. The gas was lighted but the noise of hail falling on the roofs drowned voices

Terrific storm prevailing; Irish telegraph deranged, causing some irregularities in the Liverpool reports.

NEW YORK.

New York, June 9.—A Southern Women's Bureau, having for its object the assistance of friendless females from the South, has been formed in this city.

CANADA.

Montreal, June 9.—At a meeting of influential men in regard to the late Fenian raid, Mr. Thornton's thanks to Grant, were considered disgraceful.

PAIN KILLER FROM PERRY DAVIS & SON PROVIDENCE R.I.
1840 1870
The Great Family Medicine of the Age.
THIRTY YEARS
Have elapsed since the introduction of the Pain Killer to the public, and yet at the present time it is more popular and commands a larger sale than ever before. Its popularity is not confined to this country alone; all over the world its beneficial effects in curing the "ills that flesh is heir to," are acknowledged and appreciated, and as a pain killer its fame is limited to no country, sect nor race. It needs only to be known to be prized.
Thirty Year is certainly a long enough time to prove the efficacy of any medicine, and that the pain killer is deserving of all its proprietors claim for it, is amply proved by the unparalleled popularity it has attained. It is a sure and effective remedy. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25 cts; 50 cts, and $1.00 per Bottle.
Directions accompany each bottle.

GENERAL AGENTS,
CHARLOTTE N. C.

THE EQUITABLE
HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than Thirteen Million Dollars.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after they once begin to pay them at all; but they do not begin to pay until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals four hundred and thirty-six dollars paid at the end of four years, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

DUNN'S PATENT COTTON TIE.
WE BEG TO ANNOUNCE that we have been appointed Sole Agents for the sale of the above Patent Tie in Virginia and North Carolina.
The satisfaction it gave last season wherever used, warrants us in recommending it as the best tie yet introduced. It combines the advantages of great strength, great simplicity and ease in manipulation, besides the difficulty of taking up the slack of the band in the operation of baling, is entirely obviated.
We shall have our supply direct from the manufacturer in England, for delivery in July or August, and at lowest market rates.

SWEET QUININE

CURE
For all Diseases of Malarious Origin.
Fever and Ague,
Intermittent Fever,
Chill Fever,
Remittent Fever,
Bilious Fever,
Dumb Ague,
and the long train of disorders following these when neglected.
SWEET QUININE
is made solely from Peruvian Bark (so is Bitter Quinine), therefore is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.
SWEET QUININE
acts as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, malarial or miasmatic poison, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The only advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstacle to its use with most persons, and always with children.
SWEET QUININE
SWEET QUININE
is in two forms—in POWDER, for the use of Physicians and Druggists, and FLUID, for use in the family and for the general public.

DOUBLE-ACTING FORCE PUMP.

SUBSTITUTE FOR A FIRE ENGINE,

THIS Pump will pump 80 gallons of water per minute, will never cut out the packing, has no friction, no water ever stands in its pipes to freeze, and is less liable to get out of order than any other pump now used. It can be set up in a short time by any ordinary mechanic.

Having the exclusive right to this pump for the states of North and South Carolina, and having established a factory for the manufacture of them at Wilson, N. UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS

Medal Awarded by the Paris Exposition, 1867.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition, at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work.

Place it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement, never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch, or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparatively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Mrs. Tompkins' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

THIS FAVORITE AND CELEBRATED Watering Place is now in complete order for the reception of guests. Important improvements have been added to the buildings since the establishment passed into the hands of the present proprietor, and it is his purpose to keep it in a style not surpassed anywhere in Virginia. The waters of these special springs either cure or greatly relieve most cases of Scrofula, Incipient Consumption, Chronic Bronchitis, Curonic Laryngitis, Chronic Pneumonia, Chronic Dyspepsia, Caronic Diarrhœa, Jaundice. They are also a great value in those affections which are peculiar to the female constitution, and as an appetizer, a tonic and general restorative, they are, perhaps, unrivalled amongst mineral waters. The proprietor will have provided for the lawns and ballroom a first-class band of music, and in general all the sources of amusement and recreation usually found at our best summer resorts will be at the command of the guests at "Rockbridge Alum." The place is within eleven to thirteen hours of Richmond, Washington, B Rimore, &c., by rail, all in daylight. Passengers leave the cars of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad at Goshen Depot and new and elegant stage coaches, passing rapidly over a smooth and level road of only eight miles, set down the visitors at the springs to tea.

A PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

RALEIGH June 6, 1870.

WHEREAS, In January or February, 1869, the house of DANIEL BLUE, colored, in the county of Moore was entered at night by a band of disguised men, known as the Ku Klux Klan, and the wife of the said Blue, who was pregnant, and five of the children were murdered, and the house with the bodies of the murdered persons aforesaid was burned:

And WHEREAS, on the 26th of February, 1870, WYATT OUTLAW, colored, a citizen of Alamance, was taken from his house in the town of Graham by a band of disguised persons known as the Ku Klux Klan, and hanged by the neck until he was dead, on a tree near the Court House:

And WHEREAS, on Saturday the 21st day of May, 1870, JOHN W. STEPHENS, white, State Senator from the county of Caswell, was murdered in open day-light in the Court House in the village of Yanceyville, by persons unknown, supposed to belong to the Ku Klux Klan aforesaid:

And WHEREAS on the 13th of May, 1870, ROBIN JACOBS, colored, living near Leasburg, Caswell county, was murdered at night by a band of the Ku Klux Klan aforesaid:

And WHEREAS from the 2nd of April, 1870, to the 15th of May, 1870, not less than twenty-one persons, white and colored, in the aforesaid county of Caswell, were cruelly whipped and scourged by a band or bands of the aforesaid Ku Klux Klan:

And WHEREAS, during the week ending the 14th of May, 1870, a colored man in the county of Lincoln was taken from his bed at night and tied to a tree by a band of disguised persons known as the Ku Klux Klan, while fifteen of these demons in succession committed a rape on his wife:

And WHEREAS, about the same time, in said county, a band of these men disguised, known as the Ku Klux Klan met a colored woman in the dusk of the evening and committed a rape on her body, and afterwards stuck their knives in various parts of her body:

And WHEREAS, about the same time a band of men disguised known as the Ku Klux Klan, in said county, shot a colored man on the public highway, and then told him they had shot him through mistake for another colored man, but laid him on a pile of fence rails and told him to cry for help:

And WHEREAS, recently, a colored man named PENTEAR, of the county of Alamance supposed to be half-witted, having followed two of the disguised murderers of Wyatt Outlaw to their homes, and having spoken of the fact publicly, suddenly disappeared, and was found drowned in a mill pond with a twenty pound rock to his feet:

And WHEREAS, T. M. SHOTTNER, one of the Senators in the General Assembly of this State, from the counties of Alamance and Guilford, has been compelled to sacrifice his property, and, to save his life, to make his escape from said county on account of his opposition to the Ku Klux Klan aforesaid; and his devotion to the government of the United States:

And WHEREAS on the 25th of May, 1870, a most atrocious murder was committed by three disguised men on NEILL MCLEOD and DANIEL MCLEOD, white, of the county of Cumberland, and three others of the family were wounded by these assassins:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM W. And I enjoin upon all officers, civil and military, to aid in bringing these and all other offenders to justice; and especially to discountenance, discourage, and repress all organizations of men who ride or walk at night in disguise, with arms in their hands. It is a misdemeanor thus to go disguised, and it is felony if these disguised persons molest or injure peaceable citizens in their persons or property.
